

Maladministration

Bad management of public affairs; vicious or defective conduct in administration, or the performance of official duties, particularly of executive and ministerial duties, prescribed by law; as the maladministration of a king, or of any chief magistrate.*

*Webster's 1828 American Dictionary of the English Language

The People's Notice of Encroachment and Intent To Abolish

Notice to Principal Is Notice to Agent and Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal

Please take notice that I, one of the People (As seen in the 50 American State Constitutions) Sui Juris, do present you with this notice that you may provide immediate due care; And

Please take notice that the People have assembled and realize that the only purpose of our forefathers creating constitutions and political bodies, is to protect the People's rights and property (See Evidence from John Locke's Two Treatises of Government below)

John Locke Two Treatises of Government Chapter XV of Paternal, Political and Despotical Power, Considered Together. Section 171.

171. Secondly, political power is that power which every man having in the state of Nature has given up into the hands of the society, and therein to the governors whom the society hath set over itself, with this express or tacit trust, that it shall be employed for their good and the preservation of their property. Now this power, which every man has in the state of Nature, and which he parts with to the society in all such cases where the society can secure him, is to use such means for the preserving of his own property as he thinks good and Nature allows him; and to punish the breach of the law of Nature in others so as (according to the best of his reason) may most conduce to the preservation of himself and the rest of mankind; so that the end and measure of this power, when in every man's hands, in the state of Nature, being the preservation of all of his society—that is, all mankind in general—it can have no other end or measure, when in the hands of the magistrate, but to preserve the members of that society in their lives, liberties, and possessions, and so cannot be an absolute, arbitrary power over their lives and fortunes, which are as much as possible to be preserved; but a power to make laws, and annex such penalties to them as may tend to the preservation of the whole, by cutting off those parts, and those only, which are so corrupt that they threaten the sound and healthy, without which no severity is lawful. And this power has its original only from compact and agreement and the mutual consent of those who make up the community.

Virginia Constitution Article 1 Text of Section 3: Government Instituted for Common Benefit

“That government is, or ought to be, instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security of the people, nation, or community; of all the various modes and forms of government, that is best which is capable of producing the greatest degree of happiness and safety, and is most effectually secured against the danger of maladministration; and, whenever any government shall be found inadequate or contrary to these purposes, a majority of the community hath an indubitable, inalienable, and indefeasible right to reform, alter, or abolish it, in such manner as shall be judged most conducive to the public weal.”

Please take notice that as one of the People, we declare that you have become inadequate and are encroaching upon our rights by allowing FEMA and other actors to interfere with the People's right to self-preservation and the misappropriation of funds. As such, we demand that you immediately stop funding the actions of FEMA and they should immediately cease and desist from interfering with the People's rescue efforts. Furthermore, it is the intent of the People to reform, alter and abolish all constitutions, as seen necessary to end the inadequacy of all government actors failing to handle the People's business with proper due service and care.

Full Name *

Autograph *

Sign Here

Clear

Date *

Date

Email

example@example.com

The email address will only be used to send mailing instructions and a copy of your submitted Notice

 Preview PDF

Submit

To United States
Supreme Court

To Representative
Marjorie Taylor Greene

To Representative
Jim Jordan

To Representative
Thomas Massie